

COLORFUL BREAKFASTS AND LUNCHEONS ARRANGED BY WOMEN'S CLUBS

Meetings for Elections of Officers and Directors for Ensuing Year Also Being Held—Theoria Entertains at Annual Breakfast To-morrow.

BETWEEN now and the middle of May annual spring luncheons and breakfasts and meetings for the election of officers and directors for the ensuing year will be the principal events in the routine of women's clubs. Some of them already have had their annual elections, the Chaminade Society has its spring breakfast yesterday at the Hotel Biltmore and the Government Club had its luncheon at the Hotel Astor and the Society of Kentucky Women held their luncheon on Tuesday at the Waldorf-Astoria, where on the same day the Michigan Women held their election of officers, and on Thursday the Society of Illinois Women held their annual meeting for the same purpose.

The Washington Heights Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will have its meeting for election of officers on Friday at Washington Headquarters, 160th street, Amsterdam avenue. The Manhattan Study Club held its annual election on Monday at the Hotel McAlpin and the Indiana Club will have its election to-morrow at the same hotel. The Wisconsin Women will hold their election on Friday and the Elmira College Club will have its twenty-eighth luncheon on Saturday, both affairs being at the Hotel Astor.

Theoria has its breakfast to-morrow at the Hotel Astor, where on Saturday the Theater Assembly has its annual luncheon, and on May 2 the Women's Health Protective Association will have its breakfast, and on the following day the members of the Verdi Club will have theirs.

The New York Mozart Society and the Redstone Club have their color breakfasts on the same day, May 6, the former at the Hotel Astor and the latter at the Waldorf-Astoria, where on May 13 the Euphony Society has its annual breakfast. Life as a Fine Art Club has its Maypole supper and dance on May 10 at Stockton Chambers and the Chicago Woman's Club will have its luncheon on the same day at the same place.

Presidents Day for Minerva To-morrow

"President's Day," an annual event celebrated by the Minerva Club, Mrs. Mary Stokes MacNutt president, will be held to-morrow afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria. A business meeting will precede the usual luncheon, which will be followed by a program of music and addresses and dancing, to which men have been invited.

Mrs. John P. Yawger, first vice-president, will preside in the absence of Mrs. MacNutt and Mrs. John Stokes MacNutt will be chairman of the afternoon. Many members have subscribed for the bridge party to be given by the Federation of Women's Clubs for the scholarship fund on Tuesday at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. W. W. Beales is chairman for Minerva.

The Indiana Club, Dr. Will D. Howe president, will meet to-morrow evening at the Hotel McAlpin for its annual election of officers will be followed by a program of music, in which Miss Esther Rhoades, harpist, Miss Marie Laval, soprano, and Miss Anne Owen, pianist, will take part.

United Daughters of Confederacy to Meet

The New York division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, of which Mrs. George B. Dwyer is president, will give a luncheon for their president-general, Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler, at the Hotel Biltmore, on Saturday. Bishop Thomas Gallor of Tennessee will be the speaker. The guests of honor will be Mrs. Fairfax, the president of the Colonial Dames, and Mrs. Minor, the president-general of the Daughters American Revolution. General S. C. Carr, commander of Confederate Veterans; Lady Astor, Gen. Thomas Osborne from Kentucky.

A special feature will be a table of club and State Federation presidents.

Clubs at its annual meeting at the Hotel Astor elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. Willis P. Miner, president; Mrs. Howard P. Dwyer, first vice-president; Mrs. Elliott W. Brown, second vice-president; Mrs. W. F. Rowland, recording secretary; Mrs. J. E. Bennett, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. H. Leggett, treasurer; Mrs. S. P. Galbraith, auditor; Mrs. E. K. Stewart, historian, and Mrs. J. N. Wells, Mrs. G. M. Linn, Miss M. L. Gibbs, Mrs. B. F. Van Kessel, and Mrs. E. P. Simmons, trustees.

Washington Heights Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Samuel J. Kramer, president, will hold their annual meeting on Friday afternoon at Washington Headquarters, 160th street, near Amsterdam avenue. Dr. Sigmund Spaeth will be the principal speaker of the afternoon, and Mrs. Elias Bestwick, the chairman, will speak on the "Correct Use of the Flag." The musical part of the program will be furnished by the Whitehouse Sisters, violinist and cellist.

Mme. Pareto Sings for the Haarlem Philharmonic

Haarlem Philharmonic Society, Mrs. Everett Menzies Raynor, president, had a most delightful musical on Thursday morning at the Waldorf-Astoria. The artists were Mme. Pareto, soprano, of the Chicago Opera Company; Edgar Leofeld, baritone, and Raoul Vidua, violinist. The program was preceded by a reception by the officers.

Elmira College Club to Hold Annual Luncheon

The Elmira College Club, Mrs. Leon T. Le Wald, president, will hold its twenty-eighth annual luncheon at the Hotel Astor on Saturday. The club will have as guests of honor President Lent of the college, and Mrs. Lent; Mrs. Charles M. Clark, president of the Alumnae Association, and Miss Alice Robertson, Congresswoman from Oklahoma.

On the committee in charge of the luncheon are: Mrs. F. Stuart Crawford, chairman; Mrs. Mabel C. Daggett, Mrs. Lewis T. Reed, Mrs. George A. Page, Miss Katherine Brettell and Miss Eunice Osborne.

New York City Colony, National Society of New England Women, will give a bridge party at the Hotel McAlpin on Tuesday afternoon, May 2. Mrs. B. A. Jackson, 24 West Seventy-third street, is chairman and Mrs. Henry McIlhenny, 14 East Sixtieth street, assistant chairman, and tickets at $1 or at tables at $5 may be obtained from them or at the hotel. The proceeds from the cards will be devoted to the society's hospital fund, which was founded in 1908 by Miss Lizzie Woodbury Law, who was then president; Mrs. John Francis Yawger is president of the society and on the committee in charge of the bridge party in addition to Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. McIlhenny are Miss Lizzie W. Law, honorary chairman, and the Meses, C. C. Kelley, J. S. Van Sickle, J. M. Gardner, A. B. Bickmore, J. N. Rice, D. R. Bradley, E. B. Meyrowitz, G. P. Lawton, D. H. Clement and the Meses Sarah Palmer and Evelyn E. Dean.

New England Women To Hold Congress Here

The National Society of New England Women will hold its congress at the Hotel Astor on May 3, 4 and 5, according to an announcement made last week by Mrs. Eugene J. Grant of Brooklyn, president-general of the organization.

Delegates from New England colonies in New York, Chicago, Albany, Utica, Scranton, Pa., St. Paul, Minn., Rutherford, N. J., Holyoke, Mass., Pittsburgh, Pa., Toledo, Ohio, Minneapolis, Minn., Syracuse, New York and other cities will attend the sessions of the congress, which will open at 10:30 in the morning. Suffragan Bishop Herbert Shipman of the New York Episcopal Diocese, will deliver the invocation. The day will be largely devoted to reports from the various colonies which are located in twenty-six cities and in ten different states.

On May 3 there will be a reception and dinner open to all members of the colonies and their friends. On Thursday, May 4, delegates will be taken to a theater party to see "Thank You," and on Thursday afternoon Mr. Harry Davenport of that company will speak before the congress on "The Stage and the Public."

The annual election of officers and directors will take place on Thursday and the convention will adjourn on Friday.

A meeting of the various chairmen in charge of arrangements for the convention will take place April 29, at 10:30 o'clock at the Astor.

The American Society of Reconstruction will hold its May dance on the evening of May 1 at the Hotel Plaza. The proceeds will be turned over to the philanthropic fund. Mrs. Robert Wylie Lytle is president and founder of the society and Mrs. W. H. Selden, Jr., of 200 West Fifty-eighth street, is chairman of the committee in charge, which also includes Mrs. Henry Clarke Coe, Mrs. O. H. Huntman, Mrs. Sherman Woodward, Mrs. J. C. Ledbetter, Mrs. W. R. Boyd, Mrs. Margaret Glentworth and Mrs. Lopez Cardozo.

Drama Comedy to Give Two Playlets

At the social matinee of Drama Comedy, Edith Totten president, to be held at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, on Tuesday, the special guests of honor will be Mrs. Eugene J. Grant, recent-general of the Daughters of the Revolution, and ten regents from the Long Island chapters. The Drama Comedy choral, Carl Figue director, will sing "The Hymn of Thanks," by Kremer, and "Wake Miss Lindy," by Warner. There also will be two one act plays by the Drama Comedy players, "The Bank Account," by Howard Brock, and "The Florist Shop," by Winifred Hawkrick. This will be the last monthly social matinee at the Academy of Music.

On April 23 Drama Comedy will hold its Friday review at the Hotel Astor, when the Carl Figue dramatic dialogue will be a Spanish play with interpretive music. Henry Meyer, author of the "The First Fifty Years," and Claire Eames and Tom Powers will be guests of honor. Mrs. Charles Edey Fay will demonstrate how to cut and make a complete dress in four minutes.

Emme Maak, the historian of the society, will give a musical tea this afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria, in honor of the founder and president, Edith Totten (Mrs. Russell Moore Fanning).

Wesleyan Musical Clubs Give Concert

The second annual concert of the combined musical clubs of Wesleyan University under the auspices of the Wesleyan University Club of New York was held Tuesday night in the Waldorf-Astoria. The concert was followed by dancing.

This was the first public affair participated in by the New York alumni of Wesleyan since the successful conclusion of the Wesleyan $2,000,000 endowment fund campaign. Among the patronesses were: Meses, George D. Beatty, Charles E. Berry, Joseph H. Boyd, Walter P. Bradley, Clinton B. Burdick, Frederick A. M. Burrell, John C. Clark, Frederick M. Davenport, George W. Davison, John E. Eastie, Robert H. Fife, Jr., Frederick H. Frost, John Gribbell, Clifford W. Hall, William A. Jones, William Arnold Shanklin and Herbert B. Shonk.

The Italy American society has issued invitations to its members and their friends for a meeting, which will be held on Friday, at 8:30 P. M., at the Engineering Societies Building, 29 West Thirty-ninth street.

Mr. Charles B. Alexander, one of the directors of the society, will preside. Mr. Carl Foster Carr will deliver an address on Italy-American relations and there will be a private exhibition of the new Italian motion picture, entitled "Gloria," with titles by Gabriele d'Annunzio.

The Italy American Society, of which Mr. Paul D. Cravath is president, Mr. Henry Burchell secretary, has a membership of 700, including Charles Evans Hughes, Thomas W. Lamont, Felix M. Warburg, Mortimer L. Schiff, Whitney Warren, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Hon. Robert Underwood Johnson, William Fellows Morgan, A. C. Bedford, C. A. Coffin.

Mrs. Richard M. Chapman, president, will call order for the fifty-eighth convention of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs Friday, May 5, at 10 o'clock at Hotel Astor.

Preparatory to the convention program, the co-operative meeting will be held at Hotel Astor on next Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Stanley Lyman Otis, chairman. Reports will be given by Mrs. Dudley Van Holland, chairman of motion pictures; Miss Daisy Gans, chairman of legislation on bills pending; and Mrs. Otto Hahn will report on the Year Book.

Five Women in the News of Society

MISS ANNE DOWLING.

MISS MARJORIE DOWLING.

MISS DOROTHY JAECKEL.

MISS EULALIA BARTHOLD.

MISS CORNELIA SMYTHE.

2,000 Will Attend Theater Assembly Annual Luncheon

Radio Concert to Be a Feature of Event—Junior Members to Be Ushers.

MORE than 2,000 members and guests will attend the seventh annual spring luncheon of the Theater Assembly, Mrs. J. Christopher Marks president, on Saturday at the Hotel Astor. The ballroom and adjoining rooms where the breakfast will take place will be made to resemble a rose garden, with quantities of pink rose bushes. At the end of the breakfast there will be a radio concert and afterward there will be general dancing.

The "Honey Bees," as the junior members of the organization are known, will act as ushers. Among those who will entertain large parties are Meses, Edwin Archer, A. H. Aetline, L. Barrett, E. M. Barrett, Joseph Berisford, William K. Besselle, James Bolton, John Bonney, Peter Brown, H. Breckers, Alfred Blackburn, Joseph Drucker, M. L. Bradford, A. J. Cobe, N. L. Cullin, H. G. Conrad, S. J. Curtis, Chippendale, D. A. Davies, A. R. Davis, Harry De Wit, Louis Dolphin, Dickenson, W. A. Finkelman, H. J. Forsythe, C. L. Greig, H. W. Greene, Gescheidt, Edward Hawkinson, P. F. Hine, J. Hutchinson, A. Hoffman, G. Herbert, J. E. Ingersoll, G. B. Johnson, H. C. Kieselbach, G. Kuetz, L. V. Marrer, Ida Maeder, John Massey, Charles Meyers, F. D. Mittover, Fred Michler, F. H. Mooney, W. Massey, MacDonald, James McCannahan, L. E. Niver, A. L. Page, W. C. Penton, Sarah A. Roe, J. J. Renn, Ravakes, Charles Rice and W. F. Rowland.

Also Meses, F. G. Sawyer, John M. Scoble, E. P. L. Smith, H. C. Smyth, W. P. Spies, A. Smyth, T. Shipman, J. Schenck, N. P. Stockwell, F. E. Thull, R. Trotter, Edward Wells, E. G. Williams, F. Wright and L. S. Wilson and Miss Rose Maxwell.

The Assembly will have a card party to-morrow afternoon at the Astor under the auspices of Mrs. L. C. Barrett, and on Tuesday evening the society will hold its second annual concert under the direction of Dr. J. Christopher Marks.

Harry M. Gilbert will be the accompanist and Richard Keys Biggs organist. The assisting artists will be Andrea Sarto, baritone, and Mosele Bennett, violinist.

On Wednesday the board of the Assembly will be guests at luncheon at the Actors Fund Home, West New Brighton, Staten Island. Following the luncheon the members will plant a rose garden of 150 choice rose bushes. The garden will be cared for by the Assembly.

Criterion to Give Bridge Party for 800 Players

The American Criterion Society, Mrs. Leonard L. Hill president, will give a card party for charity at the Hotel Commodore on Thursday afternoon. The bridge game begins at 2 o'clock and tea follows the card playing.

As two hundred tables have been arranged for the 800 members and their friends who have signified their intention of playing bridge on this occasion, several philanthropies will benefit by a goodly sum.

This card party, which takes place in the big ballroom, is the simplest and most successful of the society's during the social season. The Laura Franklin Free Hospital is one of the public institutions in which the members of the club take a keen interest. The crippled children of that hospital will be among the beneficiaries from the funds accruing from the card game.

Chaminade Society Gives Spring Breakfast

Chaminade Society, Mrs. Theodore Martin Hardy president, held its annual spring breakfast yesterday at the Hotel Biltmore. Many prominent speakers were guests of honor and made interesting addresses and well known artists furnished a delightful program afterward.

Mrs. Henry Arthur King was chairman of the committee in charge and was assisted by Mrs. Gorge Taft, vice-chairman, Mrs. William Rogers, Mrs. Richard Bonnett, Mrs. Frederick Gay, Mrs. Maie Hough, Mrs. Herman A. Hollman, Mrs. Frederick G. Harris, Mrs. Charles Ward, Mrs. George Reichmann and Mrs. Joseph Weinert.

Among those who entertained parties were Meses, John M. F. Welr, Herman Strubling, Marcus Fairchild, A. Fleming, Frederick A. Barre, Charles T. Hotchkiss, W. P. Sloovitch, M. O'Neill, H. Brunh, A. King, H. B. Baxter, F. A. Baldwin, C. B. Grover, H. A. Hollman, W. C. Carson, J. A. Campbell, G. Taft, Clarence R. Nims, E. P. Sney, George Reichmann, Le Grand Kerr, Frank Perkins, D. H. von Glnn, Fred M. Jewett, Guernsey Brown, Morrison Gray, George H. Elliot and George Yer. Mrs. Grace Meeks Banks and Miss Marjorie Fullerton, dressed as shepherdesses, were the president's aids.

Mme. Valdi Sings For Eclectic Club

The Eclectic Club, Mrs. Albert Canfield base president, gave its last program meeting and luncheon for the season on Wednesday at the Waldorf-Astoria. Many club presidents were among the guests of honor and made short speeches of greeting. They included Meses, Belle de Rivera, Clarence Burns, Ralph Trautman, Edith Totten, J. Christopher Marks, E. A. Abright, Katherine Von Klenner, Lillian R. Sire, H. H. Thomas, Ruth Helen Davis, George S. Ashwell, Warren W. Giles and Miss Mary Garrett Hay. Also Mrs. Kate Treunson, who brought a greeting from England.

"The Supreme Poem on the Philosophy of Life" was the topic of an address by Alfred W. Martin. Dr. Warren W. Giles also made an address on present day problems. Operatic arias and other songs were sung by Mme. Margherita Valdi, soprano, of La Scala, Milan, with Macdonald, James McCannahan, L. E. Niver, A. L. Page, W. C. Penton, Sarah A. Roe, J. J. Renn, Ravakes, Charles Rice and W. F. Rowland.

Also Meses, F. G. Sawyer, John M. Scoble, E. P. L. Smith, H. C. Smyth, W. P. Spies, A. Smyth, T. Shipman, J. Schenck, N. P. Stockwell, F. E. Thull, R. Trotter, Edward Wells, E. G. Williams, F. Wright and L. S. Wilson and Miss Rose Maxwell.

The Assembly will have a card party to-morrow afternoon at the Astor under the auspices of Mrs. L. C. Barrett, and on Tuesday evening the society will hold its second annual concert under the direction of Dr. J. Christopher Marks.

Harry M. Gilbert will be the accompanist and Richard Keys Biggs organist. The assisting artists will be Andrea Sarto, baritone, and Mosele Bennett, violinist.

On Wednesday the board of the Assembly will be guests at luncheon at the Actors Fund Home, West New Brighton, Staten Island. Following the luncheon the members will plant a rose garden of 150 choice rose bushes. The garden will be cared for by the Assembly.

Concert for St. Mary's Italian Mission, Bronx

For the benefit of the building fund of St. Mary's Italian Mission, Bronx, a concert will be given on May 1 at the Hotel Plaza. It will be under the auspices of the St. Mary's Italian Mission, which is a branch of the New York Diocese, and Mrs. Spencer Aldrich is chairman of the committee in charge. The program will be given by Donna Basley, soprano; Dr. Dickey, contralto; Esther Rhoades, harpist, and Gladys Barnett, pianist, and Gordon Brinley, who will give some unique Chaucer interpretations, all of them contributing their services.

On the program committee are Mrs. Floyd P. Chadwick, Mrs. Edna Marlone, Miss Jean Clifton, Miss Louise Ellis, Miss Elizabeth Ruse and Mrs. J. S. Whitford. The patrons and patronesses include Mrs. J. Keops West, Mrs. Myles Standish, Mrs. Haley Fluke, Mrs. Richard Cleveland, Mrs. and Mrs. Chas. C. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Suthphen, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Hatfield, Jr., Mrs. Charles F. Zabricky, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dickey, Mrs. and Mrs. Clarkson Runyon, Jr., Mrs. Robert A. McKim, Mrs. W. Wareham Harding, Miss Helen Pierce, Mrs. V. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. F. de Laney, Mrs. Richard Denish, Mrs. A. Wendel, Mrs. Edward I. Edwards, Mrs. Emma Seaman and Mrs. Henry C. Hawkins. The dancing will be opened by Mrs. Louis Gross of White Plains and assisted by the Mozart Choral.

The final concert of the season of the Mozart Society, Mrs. McConnell president, was held on Tuesday in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor. The artists were John Charles Thomas and Erwin Nyirgyhazi, Hungarian pianist, assisted by the Mozart Choral. Miss Margaret Winthrop and Mrs. Louise M. Baxter were heard in several numbers. The concert was under the direction of Rudolph T. Percy with Charles Gilbert Sprea, accompanist.

Supper and Dance For Mozart Debutante

Mrs. Noble McConnell will give a supper and dance to-morrow night at the Hotel Astor for Miss Beatrice Sillio, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Valdemar Sillio of 253 West Fifty-seventh street. She is this year's Mozart debutante. Assisting Mrs. McConnell and Miss Sillio in receiving will be Dr. and Mrs. Sillio, Mrs. Benjamin Adriaens, Mrs. Owen J. MacWilliams, Mrs. William Maynard Haraden, Mrs. Samuel Gardner Estabrook, Mrs. Richard Denish, Mrs. A. Wendel, Mrs. Edward I. Edwards, Mrs. Emma Seaman and Mrs. Henry C. Hawkins. The dancing will be opened by Mrs. Louis Gross of White Plains and assisted by the Mozart Choral.

The final concert of the season of the Mozart Society, Mrs. McConnell president, was held on Tuesday in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor. The artists were John Charles Thomas and Erwin Nyirgyhazi, Hungarian pianist, assisted by the Mozart Choral. Miss Margaret Winthrop and Mrs. Louise M. Baxter were heard in several numbers. The concert was under the direction of Rudolph T. Percy with Charles Gilbert Sprea, accompanist.

Phalo, Mrs. Eugenia M. Chapman, president, will hold its annual musicale and ten at the home of Mrs. Alexander McClean, 230 Riverside Drive, to-morrow afternoon. The program will include piano solos by Miss Catherine Snowden; two groups of songs by Mrs. F. Ferdinand Wilcox, soprano, accompanied by Mr. Rogers, and piano solo by Mrs. Alexander McClean.

For the first time since its foundation, seventeen years ago, the Astor Home for Blind Babies at Summit, N. J., a public entertainment will be given to raise funds for the care of the little inmates. A concert for its benefit will be given on May 14 at the Little Theater and many well known opera and theatrical people will donate their services, including Mme. Frances Alda of the Metropolitan, Sam Bernard, Mrs. Ida Benfey Judd, Ruth Helen Davis, Nan Halperin and Lucille MacIntyre, a young American violinist.

Mme. Alda to Sing at Concert for Blind Babies

Other Opera and Stage Stars to Take Part in Benefit Entertainment.

A CONCERT will be given at the Little Theater on Sunday night, May 14, for the benefit of the Astor Home for Blind Babies, located at Summit, N. J. This will be the first public entertainment in aid of the institution since its foundation seventeen years ago.

Opera and stage stars, including Mme. Frances Alda of the Metropolitan company, will donate their services. Mme. Alda has long been interested in the institution and has kept the unfortunate little folk supplied with phonograph records and toys. Mrs. Ida Benfey Judd, another well known entertainer and charity worker, also will appear, as will Sam Bernard, Miss Ruth Helen Davis, Miss Nan Halperin, the Strand Roof Revue and Miss Lucille MacIntyre, a young American violinist.

The officers of the home are Miss Katherine Foster, president; Mrs. John Alden, vice-president and founder; Mrs. Minnie J. Force, secretary, and Mrs. William Hedden, treasurer. On the advisory board are Mr. Martin W. Littleton, Col. Charles A. Pickett, Judges Carl Franke and W. S. Pickett, Arthur C. Staples, Mrs. B. C. Welsh, Mr. J. Hunter Lack, Dr. Thomas Darrington, Judge James C. Connelly, Mr. John William Fahr and the Rev. Walter A. A. Gardner.

The home takes infants from three days old up to fourteen. It is the object to see that the little unfortunates are given every opportunity to become healthy in order that they may learn to read, write and also get some pleasure out of life. The children come from all parts of the country for training. By careful treatment many are restored to sight. Tickets for the concert may be obtained from Mrs. William Hedden, Room 52, 56 Fifth avenue.

The officers of the home are Miss Katherine Foster, president; Mrs. John Alden, vice-president and founder; Mrs. Minnie J. Force, secretary, and Mrs. William Hedden, treasurer. On the advisory board are Mr. Martin W. Littleton, Col. Charles A. Pickett, Judges Carl Franke and W. S. Pickett, Arthur C. Staples, Mrs. B. C. Welsh, Mr. J. Hunter Lack, Dr. Thomas Darrington, Judge James C. Connelly, Mr. John William Fahr and the Rev. Walter A. A. Gardner.

The home takes infants from three days old up to fourteen. It is the object to see that the little unfortunates are given every opportunity to become healthy in order that they may learn to read, write and also get some pleasure out of life. The children come from all parts of the country for training. By careful treatment many are restored to sight. Tickets for the concert may be obtained from Mrs. William Hedden, Room 52, 56 Fifth avenue.

The officers of the home are Miss Katherine Foster, president; Mrs. John Alden, vice-president and founder; Mrs. Minnie J. Force, secretary, and Mrs. William Hedden, treasurer. On the advisory board are Mr. Martin W. Littleton, Col. Charles A. Pickett, Judges Carl Franke and W. S. Pickett, Arthur C. Staples, Mrs. B. C. Welsh, Mr. J. Hunter Lack, Dr. Thomas Darrington, Judge James C. Connelly, Mr. John William Fahr and the Rev. Walter A. A. Gardner.

The home takes infants from three days old up to fourteen. It is the object to see that the little unfortunates are given every opportunity to become healthy in order that they may learn to read, write and also get some pleasure out of life. The children come from all parts of the country for training. By careful treatment many are restored to sight. Tickets for the concert may be obtained from Mrs. William Hedden, Room 52, 56 Fifth avenue.

Club House Proposed for Self Supporting Women

Plans for the construction of a clubhouse for self-supporting women will be discussed to-morrow evening at a meeting to be held under the auspices of the Vacation Association, at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

The proposed club building, according to Miss Gertrude Robinson Smith, president of the Vacation Association, will be a social center and living quarters for women in business. There will be recreation rooms, a restaurant and every facility for comfort and sociability.

The Vacation Association is a non-sectarian, non-political organization devoted to the task of providing for the recreation and social needs of self-supporting women.

The Chicago Woman's Club, Mrs. Frederick J. MacIsaac President, Will Hold a Meeting on Tuesday at the Hotel

The Chicago Woman's Club, Mrs. Frederick J. MacIsaac president, will hold a meeting on Tuesday at the Hotel

Life as a Fine Art Club to Have Its Maypole Supper and Dance at Stockton Chambers on May 10.

Astor. A business session will precede the program, which will be musical and under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. V. Markey.

The Woman's Forum will close its season with a luncheon at the Hotel Astor on Thursday, May 12. Mrs. Marcus M. Marks, Mrs. Henry Allen LeVey and Mrs. Frank E. Bradner are a committee in special charge of the luncheon. The president, Miss Helen Varick Boswell, has written a little skit for the occasion, which will bring before those attending matters familiar to all of them as women of clubs. There will be special music by the Manhattan Ladies' Quartette and other features. Tickets are in charge of Mrs. Henry Allen LeVey, 609 West 127th street.

Beethoven Holds Its Last Evening Concert

Beethoven Society, Mme. Alda Tanini Tagliavia president, held its last evening concert of the season on Wednesday at the Hotel Plaza. A most enjoyable program was given by Reed Miller, baritone, and Nevada Van der Veer, contralto. They were assisted by the Beethoven Choral, under the direction of Howard Barlow, conductor. Harold Osborn Smith was the accompanist. Dancing followed the concert.

The directors of the club were entertained on Monday by Mrs. John Archbold at her residence, 485 Riverside Drive. The regular monthly business meeting was held on Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Tagliavia, 59 West Seventy-fourth street. It was followed by tea. The society will close its season with a dinner and dance on Thursday at the Hotel McAlpin. Miss Ella LeVey Henderson is chairman of the dinner.

Continued on Following Page.

Golf and Country Club

A Golf and Country Club within One Hour of New York is prepared to correspond with several Young Ladies and Gentlemen for the purpose of membership.

Golf, Tennis, Riding, Lacrosse, and other Social Functions will make the Club House the center of Social Activity, and it is our desire to enroll in our membership several of the younger set of high character and standing.

By Special Rules, to these members selected the annual dues and Entrance Fee will be made extremely moderate and the requirement to purchase Membership Bonds will not be necessary.

Address SECRETARY, R 121 Herald, 280 Broadway.

Men's CORRECT ATTIRE For Day or Evening Weddings. Receptions and all other Social Functions. SMARTLY TAILORED—EXPERTLY FITTED.

STADLER & STADLER. MEN'S TAILORS. 785 FIFTH AVENUE—AT 59TH STREET—NEW YORK.

Correct Wedding Requisites for the Bridegroom. Distinctive Shirts, Cravats, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hosiery, House Robes, Etc., of Luxurious Quality.

S. Sulka & Company. SHIRTMAKERS and HABERDASHERS. 512 FIFTH AVENUE—43RD ST.—NEW YORK.

FURS TO COLD STORAGE—NOW. SECURE SAFETY FROM MOTH DAMAGE.

Telephone Murray Hill 5838 and Wagon Will Call.

Household Furniture Stored. Warehouses Fireproof. Silverware Stored. Safety Guaranteed Against Fire and Theft. Safes for Securities and Valuables.

LINCOLN SAFE DEPOSIT CO. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.

Lincoln Safe Deposit Co. 42nd Street, opp. Grand Central Terminal.